President's Report

Hi everyone!

Things have been a little different the last couple of months, as it was inevitably our turn at being disrupted by the roadwork. The gallery has been closed the majority of the time, but we expect to reopen with our regular hours very soon!

We are looking forward to seeing the results of the work in Balliol St – hopefully it will attract more visitors to our lovely gallery.

The most exciting news is that we will soon have a new website! Through a grant we received, the website is being redeveloped and will soon be new and improved. The preliminary ideas already look amazing. We are looking for artist's updated profiles to be included as well, so please send those in!

On the subject of technology, the Facebook page for the Gallery is up and running also.

Hinchinbrook Regional Arts is quite a cutting edge organization these days.

Have a wonderful month getting creative!

With entrants from all over Queensland the diversity was astonishing and the 2013 competition is sure to follow suit. With sections for painting, drawing, photography, sculpture, ceramics and more the competition's ensuring exhibition has something everybody can appreciate and is one of Ingham's most renowned displays.
