President's Report August 2010

It is hard to believe the AGM is the next meeting and another year has gone by. It has been an extremely busy year especially moving the Gallery to the School of Arts building in Balliol St. Everyone seems to enjoy the new Gallery and I believe we have had more than a thousand visitors already since moving. Comments from customers are very positive. Thank you to Daryl and Geoff, Jane and Greg, Lyn and Keith and Judy and Lee for all the extra effort they put in to setting up the Gallery. It is a pleasure to spend time there.

The other major event was the Cardwell Art Prize 2010. There were a record number of entries and the quality of the Art works was outstanding. This event could not have been achieved without the assistance of our sponsors. I think they deserve another special Thank You. Cardwell & District Community Bank Branch of Bendigo, Norship Port Hinchinbrook, Seafarm Crystal Bay Prawns, Hinchinbrook Resort & Cruises, Chroma Arts Australia, Faber Castell, Oxlades Paint & Art Qld, Paul Henle, Cardwell Village Beachcomber Motel & Caravan Park, Ingham Art Framing Studio, N & K Services, Paronella Park, Far North Telecommunications, Judy Robertson, Tully Sugar, Wildcard Art, Cardwell Fresh Fruit & Vegetables, Lu-Cee Ingham, Andrew Cripps MP, Ross & Margaret Sorbello, Carmel Silvestro, Mungalli Creek Dairy. A thank you to the judge Dr Sylvia Ditchburn. Congratulations go to all entrants and an extra special congratulation to all winners. All artists can now start planning for the next exhibition in 2012.

Welcome to all our new members. We look forward to your participation in our Association and look forward to seeing you and your work in the Gallery.

Other events included exhibition openings, workshops and morning teas. I hope everyone who attended had an enjoyable time.

The Saturday drawing and painting group is still operating and we look forward to seeing more of you join in. The next one is on September 11.

All positions on the executive will become vacant at the AGM. I would like everyone to consider taking on a position. We do run on volunteers and the more volunteers the easier it is to run the association.

Thank you to everyone for all your assistance throughout the year especially Daryl, Judy and Rosemary. I couldn't have been President without you all.

Kerry Robertson

Saturday Painting & Sketching Group

Meets once a month on the second Saturday of the month at 1.00pm at the gallery

No experience necessary

Just bring a sketch pad, some sketching or painting materials and a chair.

Depending on the weather, we sometimes travel out to an interesting site in the area or we may stay at the gallery and sketch. It is a relaxed afternoon of art!

Treasurers notes.....Judy Netterfield

Due to the large number of happenings to the gallery this year, I am issuing an interim report for members.

1. Proceeds of sale of old stock and equipment before moving to our new premises $ 612.00
2. Mothers Day Raffle $ 274.00
3. Profit on the Cardwell Art Prize $ 726.16
4. Raffle at the Cardwell Art Prize $ 512.00
5. Costs to the gallery to move to the new premises $6,227.53

There are further costs to come for the new gallery, but with a healthy balance of over $7,000 we should be able to manage them.

RAG Editor - Position Vacant – it seriously is now vacant
Who would like to volunteer to produce the Christmas Issue?
It could be fun...maybe a couple of members would like to put it together? It can be as simple or as complex as you want to make it.....come on guys...we need a few more members willing to muck in and have a go.....if a few of us offered to do an issue each throughout the year it would be easy...many hands????

Fun position as community art group bi-monthly magazine editor.

Work begins on Mission Beach arts centre

Cassowary Coast Council’s Mayor Bill Shannon prepares to turn the first sod on the Mission Beach

Construction has begun on Mission Beach’s long-awaited community arts centre at Marcs Park. Local award-winning firm Mager Constructions won the contract to build the $420,000 Mission Arts centre on land leased from the Cassowary Coast Regional Council. The site adjoins the existing recreational facility and Girl Guides hall and is adjacent to the site of the proposed public swimming pool complex.

Mayor Bill Shannon said Mission Arts and the swimming pool would bring Marcs Park to life with a permanent, rather than an intermittent, community presence.

“I am really excited that the committee was able to access job stimulus funding money to build a much needed facility in Mission Beach,” Mr Shannon said.

“I am also pleased the job was won by a local contractor. He has got obligations in the contract to employ a traineeship and it will keep six people employed in the construction phase.

“Marcs Park is a great location. “

The swimming pool project would hopefully have State Government funding approval in the new year and the council would look at matching this.

Mager Constructions this year was named Building Professional of the Year for Queensland and received a professional excellence award at the Australian Institute of Building Awards for its work on the upgrade of the art deco Innisfail Shire Hall.

President of Mission Beach Community Arts Centre’s management committee, Lynda Hannah said Bark Architects, of Noosa, had designed the Mission Arts centre as a series of stylised “pods” under a skillion roof. Each pod could be opened out to make one large area or be closed off for individual exhibitions and activities.

“This is the start of a really exciting project for everybody in Mission Beach,” Ms Hannah said. “The facility is being built for the entire community to use. It will be a meeting and training hub of activity, everything from children’s school holiday workshops to Work Place training programs.

“We are now fundraising to equip and furnish the centre and ask people to join our group and help us realise this dream for local residents and visitors, and especially the children of the area.”

Initial planning for the project was begun by Mission Beach Artists about three years ago, and the concept had since broadened to encompass all the arts, including performance, music and writing.

The MBCAC management committee includes representatives from various community groups and interests.

For more information on joining MBCAC or helping with fundraising activities or donations, please visit the website at www.missionarts.net.

A note from the outgoing publicity officer.....

As many of you have probably heard, I have finally handed back my publicity hat and also my almost permanent temp RAG editor’s hat.

It’s time for some new voices to be heard in the group, new ideas and new energy.

I think for me, a page turned, when we finally moved into our great new home in the school of arts building and we successfully staged our second Cardwell Art Prize. I am so proud of what we have achieved over the last 10 years, in keeping our little gallery running and establishing an identity for our group in the region. I know it has not always been an easy task. It has taken a lot of determination and hard work by so many of our members and volunteers.

Now we no longer have to worry about the roof falling in or wet season floods in the old gallery, or how we pay the rent and afford to run the big, old air-conditioner; it seems like a good time to encourage some new faces to get involved and active.

I will certainly continue to be an active member and volunteer with the group, I will continue to take care of our website and tasks as allocated by the committee. I hope someone will step forward, in the very near future, to take on the Publicity Officer’s position and RAG editor’s job.

These positions really can be as big or as little as you want to make them, they do not require a high level of technical skill and support and advice is available to help. These tasks can be fun and creative ones. We have established good connections with local & regional print media over the years that are happy to run stories and pictures for the group.

Please consider raising your hand at the AGM Sept 21st. Our group will only survive and prosper if we all do our bit to make the wheels turn.

Thanks to all who have helped with publicity & the Rag during the last decade...it’s been fun!

Cheers
Daryl

ART & BOOKS

Books on the way.....

Member Pam Galeano has a new book ready for publication. It will be her fourth illustrated children's book. The new book tells the story of a little baby crocodile in the Hull River. Illustrated by artist Daryl Dickson, the book is scheduled for release in October.

Member Murray Massey is also close to completing his pre-publication and editing works to bring the late Sandy Hubinger's Cardwell Memoir The Calophyllum Shore to print – - publication dates and release dates are yet to be finalized...it should be a great read!

The Licuala Writers group is also working towards the publication of an anthology of verse and pros by local writers...yet another one to keep an eye out for....

Great timing for early Christmas present buying!

We will keep members informed of book launch dates.

It is great to see local authors and illustrators out there getting their work published.
